

THE HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21st, 1879.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hon. R. P. HOCKER, is a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1879.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
DR. LUKE P. BLACKBURN,
Of Jefferson County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
HON. JAS. E. CANTRELL,
Of Scott County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARDIN,
Of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
GEN. PAYETTE HEWITT,
Of Harlan County.

FOR TREASURER,
HON. J. W. TATE,
Of Franklin County.

FOR SUP. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
PROF. J. DESHA PICKETT,
Of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
CAPT. RALPH SHIELDON,
Of Nelson County.

Whoever wasn't Hubbard and Porter Hudson mail last Saturday. Expect they quit the army too soon.

The McLean county Democrats held a primary election on Saturday, June 14th, to nominate a candidate for the Legislature. There are several aspirants, and a lively time is expected.

HON. WALTER EVANS, Republican candidate for Governor, will speak here on the 5th of June. We hope Judge Cook and Dr. Blackburn will enter their appearance, and let us have a jolly old three-cornered racket.

J. B. YOUNG, Deputy Sheriff of McLean county, took a female named Elijah Williams to the Anchorage Asylum yesterday, but he was refused admittance and the officer returned here last night, lodging him in jail, whence he will take him to-day to the asylum at Hopkinsville. [Courier-Journal]

Mrs. ALICE HAWTHORNE MUDG, a lady well-known here, having won some literary celebrity, has announced herself as a candidate before the next Legislature for State Librarian. Mrs. Mudg is a widow with three children, and has many warm friends who will exert themselves in her behalf. [Courier-Journal]

Mrs. Mudg is a lady of fine literary attainments and would grace the position.

Mr. Shultz Withdraws.

In consequence of business interests—prizing and shipping tobacco for the farmers—which prevents my making a canvass, and having to neglect the one or the other, and not wishing to neglect the interest of the farmers, which I have undertaken, and which they are depending upon me to attend to, and not being acquainted in a large portion of the county and hence not willing to make the race without a canvass, I have concluded it best to withdraw. I am very thankful to the many friends, who gave me encouragement and proffered me their support.

Very Respectfully,
ZEE W. SHULTZ.

Rally, Democrats!

Mr. Z. W. Shultz having withdrawn from the Legislative race, leaves the track clear to Hon. R. P. Hocker, who has served one term in the Legislature, with credit to himself and benefit to his constituency, and who will bring to his second term an experience which will make him, with his other qualifications, a useful member, and one of whom the good people of Ohio county may justly feel proud. Turn out then, Democrats to the primaries on Saturday the 31st, and to your county convention on next County Court day, and give Mr. Hocker a send-off, which will sweep like the besom of destruction over the venient Meno(r)y, and let us have that mileage question settled by the people, after a thorough airing on the stump.

Keep it Before the People.

That the Congress of the United States have no power to regulate elections held for the election of Representatives of Congress, or President or Vice President of the United States, by virtue of the Constitution of the United States, including the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments. It has been so decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, since these Amendments were incorporated into the Constitution. This decision was made by Judges of the court, appointed by the Republican party. The control of the elections being exclusively to the States, so say these Judges. Then away with all interference in these elections by Federal soldiers or United States Marshals.

Democratic Convention.

The Democrats of Ohio county are called to meet in convention at the court-house in Hartford, on Monday, June 24, 1879, to nominate a candidate for Representative of Ohio county, in the next Legislature. The Democrats of the county are requested to meet at their respective voting places on Saturday May 31st, 1879, and elect delegates to represent them in the County Convention, on the following Monday. The Committee earnestly request all Democrats of the county to attend their voting district meeting, and endeavor to select their best men as delegates, so that the labors of the County Convention will be successful.

J. E. FOGLE, E. D. WALKER,
Secretary, Chm. Ex. Com.

HARTFORD, KY., May 19, 1879.
Hon. John S. Williams, United States Senator, from Kentucky.

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned, your friends and admirers, of Hartford and vicinity, send you greeting for your excellent speech on the Army Bill, recently delivered in the United States Senate.

Your dignified, incisive, and logical presentation of facts, has fully realized the fondest hopes of your friends, and elicited encomiums from those who were doubtful as to your prudence and ability to meet the great National questions soon thrust upon you after your entrance upon the Senatorial arena.

Wishing the star of your glory may ascend still higher, and burn even more brightly, we subscribe ourselves your friends and constituents.

W. B. Hayward, G. S. Fitzhugh,
John P. Barrett, Thomas H. Hines,
Jas. W. Ford, John E. Pondleton,
J. L. Collins, E. D. Walker.

And about one hundred others.

Republican Convention.

The convention met on Saturday, May 17, 1879, and was called to order by the Chairman, R. P. Rowe. On motion, M. McIntyre was elected Secretary. After preliminary remarks by the Chairman, Messrs. Wedding and Woodward, the Resolutions by the State Convention of April 10, 1878, were endorsed.

The next business in order being nominations for a candidate for the Legislature, Messrs W. P. Rowder, Dr. J. W. Menard, Melvin Taylor, David L. Smith and L. P. Cox were duly placed in nomination.

On motion, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted, viz: Resolved That who ever may be the choice of this Convention shall be the candidate of the Republican party of Ohio County for the Legislature, and that we promise and agree, individually and collectively, to support who ever may be nominated harmoniously and effectively.

W. C. Morton and Robert Duncan were appointed Tellers, who reported the following as the result of the first ballot, viz:

W. P. Rowder . . . 7
Dr. J. W. Menard . . . 43
Melvin Taylor . . . 10
D. L. Smith . . . 3
L. P. Cox . . . 6

Dr. J. W. Menard, having received a majority of the votes cast, was declared the nominee, and upon motion of Esq. Taylor, the result was made unanimous.

After stirring speeches by Messrs. Wedding and Hubbard, the Convention adjourned sine die.

R. P. ROWE, M. MCINTYRE,
Chairman. Secretary.

McLean County Items.

Editor Herald: Having assumed the pen and bent my bow to suit the times, I will venture a few lines for the Herald to let you know that I am not dead "but sleepeth."

I will not weary your patience by commencing this letter after the manner of a great many correspondents by giving you the biography of all the people in this vicinity. I could go on and tell you that Glenview is a nice place and J. H. Jackson does more work in his department (blacksmithing and wood work) than any other shop in this county, and gives more universal satisfaction with all than any body. I could also say that John Kiger is selling lots of goods, and listed more merchandise than any two stores in the county. I could state that Messrs Cox & Troutman, are building a large store house in Glenview, in which goods of some kind will be sold, and that it is a fact that we can beat the world with beautiful ladies—that we have the best and prettiest farming country, the best music, vocal and instrumental, and all sorts of nonsense, but as I plainly stated in the outset, I would not weary you, nor I won't.

Candidates for Legislative honors, thickens. We have in the field at this writing Dr. Howard, of Caloon, Dr. Merchhead, Johnathan Tanner, Mr. Rudy, and one or two others whose names we never learned. It will soon get warm for some of them.

Not much sickness here, and but few deaths. Drs. Luckland and Carpenter, stand sentry, which accounts for our salubrious neighborhood. Business is really better, and more work is being done in Glenview than any point I have visited.

We will have some fruit, such as apples, plums, &c., but no peaches. I notice that very nearly all of the blackberry bushes are dead.

Mr. James P. Mosely, of this place, has in his possession a very quaint porch horn which he purchased at the sale of Jesse Crow. Eighty-four years ago, Mr. Crow was murdered by a negro at what is called Crow's Pond, or near the year 1794. Jesse Crow was the father of Elijah Crow, one of Ohio county's early representatives to the Legislature. This horn has not been used for thirty years.

Some of the gentlemen down this way are catching some fish, but don't make it a success.

Weather pleasant and spring like.

The above named village is dead. He, the old, expired April 2, 1879. It fills our hearts with unpeppable sadness to chronicle this, our great loss. But the strange part is, the death of one thing gave double life to another; for it is an indisputable fact, that Sedon is "alive and kicking."

There is a new spring hand organized in the still breathing suburbs; and is, with the exception of A. S. Higgs, superior to the old one. That reminds me. Our associations with Mr. Higgs will long be retained in our memory, as a year of pleasure and improvement. We found him to be a scholar, a musician and altogether a gentleman. Success to him, we wish of a large number of friends here.

Croquet is being renewed. We also have a new game called croquet. Uncle Billy Walker's beautiful grove is the principal sporting ground, but the young ladies with bows and arrows, together with Dr. Sanders and wife and several others, spent a day last week, practicing. There are several experts in the club, especially among the ladies. Stop down and try your hand in the use of the real man's weapon, and enjoy the hospitality of Uncle Billy. Capital is there, and if he misses the mark, I will always think he has been a miser in his duty.

Spring is in the air, and out on the table. Corn planting is the topic of the day. The security of this, our staple, is telling its own story. We are working for a large acreage and a larger yield.

Our Paradise correspondent spoke of the early Martin. A young lady in this vicinity wishes to inform him that her home and heart was made glad by a visit from him, two weeks earlier. Hear what she has to say. "He came, but my house was not finished, and he left. I will be ready next spring, and perhaps I will catch him, but then Martin is so uncertain. They will come, inspect surroundings, sing and twitter, or talk and flatter, and you think you have them, when all at once, they unfold their wings, or mount their horse and are gone. Alas! poor little Martin. The Point Pleasant Island Station-shackled string band, was to have met at W. L. James' last Saturday night, but one of the members thought it paid better to get sick. Now, Baring, no play off, that old lady decided in your favor; she says you are a bass fiddler."

I expect there was a wedding in that buggy.

Geo. E. Rowe predicted there would be hail in April. George, run for some office, as a prophet, you are done.

We offer a premium to the young lady who will come to Jacob C. Ward's and excel Miss Laura Rowe in playing croquet, and being as fascinating generally.

Jim Fillbro has paid for his farm, judging by what he said, when he purchased.

I learn that Mr. Sam Bishop, of this vicinity, has accepted a situation in Mr. R. P. Rowe's grocery. I sincerely hope he may be more successful as a clerk, than he was in his controversy with sign-specty. There may not be a peacemaker convenient to lift the load off his back.

The latest news: Centertown was not killed, but stunned.

Give this place in the jolly old Herald, if you think it deserving. When Miss Sadie asks you who wrote from Centertown, tell her not to feel disappointed, for it was not a letter, but a simple

ACCOMPANY—MENT.

West Providence Pickings.

West Providence, May 15. Editor Herald: We are having plenty of rain in this part of the county. Heavy rain-falls since the night of the 12th inst. Wheat, oats and grass look well. I think we will have a tolerably good apple crop. Some say we will have a good mast. Sheep, hogs and cattle are in a better condition, since spring set in. Work stock in a very good condition notwithstanding the scarcity of corn. Tobacco plants are nearly all destroyed by the bug. A good portion of the tobacco lands will be put in corn.

Some of our farmers are sleeping by their little corn piles. Their corn has been leaving them during the still hours of night. Boys, you should not treat your corn so badly, as to give it cause to leave you.

On Saturday, May 10th, at West Providence church, Dr. J. S. Coleman read an essay on the "Evils of Annual Calls." This subject was assigned him by the Davies County Minister's and Deacons' Meeting, and the essay was read before said meeting which met in Owensboro, last night. It was such a true exhibit of West Providence church, that he was actually accused of having prepared it for the special occasion. On Sunday, he delivered an able discourse to a large and attentive audience, on "Church Unity." I hope his visit to West Providence will prove profitable.

We will soon have a flourishing mill at Rockport. We are glad that that enterprising young man, Royce Turner, has undertaken what Rockport and vicinity have so long needed.

Old Uncle Philip Robertson is now over 77 years old, and has been living in sight of his present home near Pond Run church, for 75 years. Can that be beaten in the county or in the State?

Farmers have nearly finished planting corn the first time. But as fast as it comes through the surface, it is taken off by the abominable ant-worm. A good portion of the corn lands will be turned out and planted again. The worst of it, the worms are here yet, waiting for the second planting.

The Latest Proclamation.

HOW IS THE TIME AND HERE IS THE PLACE.

GOODS AT YOUR OWN FIGURES.

"The House That Still Stands," Leading by a Greater Distance Than Ever Before.

L. ROSENBERG & KNO., are just now receiving a large and well selected stock of spring and summer goods. Great stocks of clothing, notions of dress goods, car loads of notions, heaps of domestic goods, calicoes by the case, ladies' hats in endless variety, ladies' and misses' hosiery, ladies' Misses' children's shoes, Gents shoes, boots and hats, without number, and all other goods in the dry goods line. All of these goods have been bought at the very lowest cash prices, and have been marked at the smallest possible margin of profit, and will be sold for cash, or country produce at cash prices. "One price only," is our motto. No trouble to deliver. We invite an inspection of our stock, feeling assured that we can duplicate any retail prices in this part of the world. It costs you nothing to come and see us. Respectfully,
L. ROSENBERG & KNO.

Beaver Dam Dots.

Beaver Dam, Ky., May 19. Editor Herald:

I am like the lover who caused his "girl" to become angry by telling her he wanted to kiss her—always ready to mend waters by still wishing the same. Once or twice I have mentioned in letters to the Herald that I would be pleased, and my impression was, that the community in general would be, to have Prof. Hayward teach school at this place next Fall. Two or three persons have made a few remarks about my so writing, and desire to know why I am interested, and why I prefer Prof. Hayward to Mr. P. E. Hocker, they preferring Mr. Hocker and considering him the best instructor in this part of the county.

I prefer Prof. Hayward because I consider him the best qualified teacher in this part of the State, and I do not know that he has a superior in the State. My opinion is formed from what I have heard learned men say, and from what I myself believe; although one of the distinguished(?) gentlemen who has freely spoken of this may be far my superior. The may be my superior in some things, and I know he is in one respect, which he is well aware of.

Another reason I prefer Prof. Hayward is, were he to take charge of the school, he would have twenty or twenty-five students from a distance. These parties would have to board, be clothed, etc., and would be of benefit to every business man in the place, and to farmers, because it would afford a more ready market for all of their produce. This place will never be built up until we have a good school and other things. We could have a large school here as well as South Carrollton, Hopkinsville, Russellville, Franklin, or any other town, if the people generally would take some interest. It is to the interest of every class of men to build up a first class school.

So far as Mr. Hocker, I have nothing but the kindest feelings towards him. I have never spoken of him unkindly, have only said I did not believe he possessed the qualifications that Prof. Hayward does, nor do I suppose he claims to. He doubtless would like to teach the school, and have never heard him utter one word on the subject; but he will, no doubt, coincide with me, that Hayward would build up a better school, and in a shorter time than himself.

Outside of Hayward I have no preference, just as soon Mr. Hocker would have it as any other.

I have not written this to have any controversy at all, and will not do so, but only to give my reason and that of many others why Prof. Hayward is the preference, if proper arrangements can be made with him. This is all I have to say on the subject, but still I want Hayward.

I guess I will have to make another explanation. A few weeks since, in one of my articles—it was brilliant as mine always are—you know—I said if the people would go to work and not play so much there would be less complaint of hard times and we could have more money. I forget the exact wording but that was the meaning I intended to convey. A gentleman, and I hope friend of mine, accosted me on the street the other day and remarked that he came near answering me, as he construed the reading to apply particularly and exactly to the farmers. I told him I did not so intend it, and now say to others who are of his opinion, that I meant every person, not only farmers but all of every profession, myself included. In my communications I never intend to speak unkindly of any one and when persons so construe my words, they are mistaken. Every person does not read alike and some fail to watch punctuation points thereby giving the same words different construction. Nothing more on the two above subjects until I get further reports. Curse me all you want to gentlemen for it makes me of note and I love it—but for God's sake don't kick me.

The heavy rainfall last Wednesday was of great benefit and vegetation now looks prosperous. I still hear of rust on wheat, though some think the injury will be slight. I hear some neighbors the Hessian fly is causing much danger to the wheat. A great deal of wheat has turned yellow and has ceased to grow. If any one knows of any preventative to keep the fly from wheat, they should make it known.

Dr. J. S. Coleman entertained a crowded house full of people here yesterday with another of his able discourses from Matthew, tenth chapter, 29, 30 and 31 verses. He will preach for us again the 5th Sunday in June at 11 o'clock A. M.

—The Baptist church, colored, at this place, immersed six members of their church, at the water mills last Sunday evening. A large number of the citizens were present.

—The members of the Sabbath school, at this place, have purchased a nice clock of W. H. Edson, Jeweler, and placed it in the church. The school will be run on time hereafter.

—The dance at the residence of Capt. Sam K. Cox, last Wednesday night was an enjoyable affair. There was a goodly number present and the evening was one of unalloyed pleasure.

—The young ladies and gentlemen of town passed a very pleasant time last Tuesday evening at the residence of Hon. S. E. Hill. The occasion was a dance, and was highly enjoyed by all participating.

—Capt. J. W. Cluke, a prominent citizen of Princeton, committed suicide on May 14th by shooting himself with a double barrel shot gun. He imagined himself wrongfully accused of having been professing committing in the late Battle tragedy.

—A little girl was returning from school last evening, she came very near being run over by Mr. W. C. Morton, who was rushing down Market street with a pair of boys' boots on his arm. The boots were bought at Anderson's bazar.

—Thos. C. Snell, living in Crownwell district, sent us a twin egg. The eggs are connected by a ligament about four inches long, making the total length about eight inches. We hope this extra production in the poultry line may induce some fair dunsel to take compassion on our bachelor friend.

—We have received from Messrs. George & Walter Parrish, music dealers, Owensboro, a copy of the beautiful song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge, "Keep Your Little Heart for Me." All orders sent to them will be promptly filled and mailed, post-paid, upon receipt of publishers' prices.

—Mr. Milligan Wright has rented the Crow House in Hartford, and is now prepared to accommodate guests at reasonable rates. Transient meals 20 cents, board and lodging $2 per week. A first-class barroom is run in connection with the hotel where Mr. M. F. Hines will be found ready to wait upon you. Patronage solicited.

—Go to the Hartford Water Mills for your carding and grinding. They are up with their work and you can get your carding and grinding without delay. They have carded 31 packages of wool up to this date. A large supply of Cates' goods on hand, which they will sell for cash or exchange for wool.

—Mr. Ansel Wilson, of Wilson's Mills, called on us last week and solicited for the Herald, saying he could not longer do without it. He is one of the working men, and now has 30 acres of growing wheat, and proposes to thresh out the largest crop of wheat in this county this year. Mr. Wilson has eight sons nearly all large enough to work.

—Trustees of school districts, will elect 7 trustees, on the 7th of June, next, instead of one, because the election last June was void, and those who hold the place of trustees, do so by appointment, and that appointment only holds till the election in June next. A. B. BARNES, C. S. C. Hartford, Ky., May 13.

—Ohio County News, please copy

—The vacancy in the Trainmaster's office of the Paducah and Elizabeth town railroad caused by the death of Mr. P. Stewart, has been filled by Mr. Will C. Sutherland. Mr. Sutherland is quite a young man, but his prompt attention and devotion to this important profession, has well qualified him for this high and responsible position. Mr. Sutherland at one time was agent at Beaver Dam, and made many warm friends while there. Will do.

—Think of the attractions that will be offered at the Bazaar this week, and don't stay away. Silk mitts in all colors, ladies' shoes in great variety, a sensation in ladies' strap slippers, (you must have a pair) ivory finger rings at the price of common ones—kind gloves in all colors and all prices, another lot of ladies' underwear, towels and sundries, a big lot of prints, cheap cottonades, and many more things that we cannot now think of.

—Mr. Wm. C. Roan is located at Russellville, and employed by Mr. N. B. Ashby in the manufacture of horse collars. His collars are made from leather tanned by Mr. Ashby, which is more durable than that tanned by the late mode of tanning. Mr. Roan has an enviable reputation as a collar manufacturer. He proposes to furnish this part of the Green River Country. Collars of his manufacture can be had at J. C. Thomas & Bro's. saddle shop. Examine them before buying elsewhere.

—Daniel F. Tracy, undertaker, is evidently, the most energetic, wide-awake and thorough business man in that line in the Green River Country.

We were recently shown through his stock and were surprised to find such a large, magnificent variety of coffins, caskets, coffin trimmings, inscriptions, etc. Mr. Tracy has added to his line of ready-made robes of the neatest and most fashionable designs. He also has a large number of wagons, buggies, buggy cushions on hand, which he is offering at less than city prices. Give him a call and be convinced of this fact.

—From the signs at the Bazaar counters yesterday, we would say there is going to be about six weeks' things in town soon. We asked the Bazaar man about it, but he fixed up a story that was decidedly thin. When you wish to marry, buy your "dixen" at the Bazaar, they "never tell tales out of school."

—Norman, a favorite family buggy horse, belonging to Mr. Henry Field, of this place, was shown in Rough last Thursday evening. Mr. Field had sent a negro boy with the horse and buggy to the creek to have the buggy washed, and the boy not anticipating the depth of the water, there having been several feet rise, drove in. The buggy pressing on the horse, soon caused him to be in swimming water. The horse took down stream, swimming with the buggy and boy a distance of about two hundred yards, when he gave up the ghost, and sank beneath the waves. The boy escaped by the skin of his teeth. The buggy and harness were recovered without much damage to them.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Henry Ballantine, of Ramsey, was in town yesterday.

Thos. Barnes, son of Mr. J. T. Barnes, near Cervato, died Sunday last, of hemorrhage.

We had the pleasure, yesterday morning, of a call from Father M. F. Melody, of Litchfield.

Mr. John E. Magan and family, of Union, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Field, of this place.

Mr. James Anderson, who is attending South Carrollton Institute, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents here.

Misses Calista and Minnie Shull, of Cromwell, were visiting Misses Loga and Lula Walker, of this place, last week.

Rev. J. M. Peay, Prof. Ellis M. Coleman and Judge C. L. Morehead, of South Carrollton, were in town last Saturday.

W. A. Gibson has taken a position behind the counter of L. Rosenberg & Co., where he will be pleased to see his many friends.

Mr. Thomas Ivy, of Carnai, Ill., is spending a few days with old friends here. Mr. Ivy was formerly a resident of this place.

Born, & the wife of W. C. Morton, May 14th, a son, William Louis Dix. To say that "Huck" is happy, would be drawing it a thousand strains to fine.

Dr. Amos Davis, of Pleasant Ridge, accompanied by his estimable wife, spent Monday in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hardwick.

O. M. White, of Logan county, called on us last Saturday, and renewed his subscription to the Herald. He reports that heading out low—caused by the drought.

Rev. J. H. James and family, of Beta, have moved to town and are occupying Mrs. Eliza Tracy's dwelling. Mr. James is engaged in Bean & Vaughn's blacksmith shop.

Luther, son of Jack Stevens, aged eighteen, died last Friday of typhoid pneumonia, after a week's illness. Luther was a clever, honest and worthy boy, and well liked by all who knew him. He was buried at Alexander, Saturday.

Mr. George Simmons, representing J. S. Phelps & Co., proprietors of the Planters Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, was in town last Friday, soliciting shipments. Mr. Simmons gave us a call and an order for several hundred business cards.

Mr. T. C. Robertson, of Louisville, representing the firm of B. L. Stevens & Co., wholesale manufacturers of ladies' and children's boots and shoes, spent a day or two in town this week, the guest of Judge W. F. Gregory.

We had the pleasure of a call last Saturday from Mr. J. S. Bennett and wife, Mrs. John B. Rowan, Miss Patricia Stevens and Miss Annie Pratt. Miss Abertson resides in McLean county, but is conducting a school at No Creek.

We had a call Saturday evening from Mr. Joseph Benton, accompanied by Mrs. Delilah Bennett and Miss Nanette Moore. Mrs. Bennett is the widow of Mr. Asa Bennett, and mother of Mr. James Bennett, deceased, and is perhaps the oldest lady in the county, being eighty-two years of age.
